CREDIT TERMS

1. ALL INVOICE TERMS ARE NET 30 DAYS. The Customer shall pay the full amount of each invoice within 30 days of the date of invoice. After 30 days from the invoice date the invoice shall be considered PAST DUE and the Customer shall be in default. Customer shall pay a service charge on all past due balances for which payment has not been received or according to any special terms agreed between Drilling Tools and Customer. The service charge shall be the lower of 1½% per month of the Customer's outstanding past due balance after deducting current payments and credits, or the full amount of interest on past due accounts permitted by law. Such service charges shall become part of the customer's outstanding balance. The Customer warrants that it is not a "consumer" as defined by applicable federal or state consumer or usury law.

2. Customer acknowledges and agrees that this Credit Application and these Credit Terms are not an implied promise of credit, and that Drilling Tools, in its sole and exclusive discretion and without advance notice, reserves the right to refuse credit to Customer generally, or on any particular transaction, and may require advance payment, C.O.D., or other special terms as a condition of doing business with Customer.

3. Drilling Tools may increase the amount of credit extended to Customer from time to time by allowing the Customer additional credit to cover unpaid invoices. Drilling Tools may also terminate credit at any time, if the Customer is in default on any invoice, or if, in its sole and exclusive discretion, it determines that its current or future invoices to Customer may be in jeopardy of default.

4. Customer waives demand, presentment of payment, and notice of protest or diligence. The laws of the state of Texas shall govern this Credit Application and these Credit Terms without reference to principles of conflicts of laws. Customer agrees that applying for credit from Drilling Tools and any subsequent business with Drilling Tools constitutes doing business in the state of Texas and that Customer consents to the personal jurisdiction of the state and federal courts in Texas.

5. If the Customer fails to pay invoices in default, and Drilling Tools elects to sue the Customer for collection, then Customer shall also be liable for, and shall reimburse Drilling Tools for, all costs incurred by Drilling Tools arising out of such collection action, including, but not limited to attorney's fees, collection agency fees, court costs, deposition and transcript costs, expert witness fees, sheriff's fees, special process server fees and bond costs. The venue for any such collection action shall be a court of competent jurisdiction sitting in Harris County, Texas. The Customer waives a jury trial in respect of any such collection action. Customer agrees that any claim Customer may assert against Drilling Tools, its officers, directors, employees, agents or contractors (collectively, the "Drilling Tools Group"), whether alleged in equity, tort, or contract, shall be filed by Customer in the above-referenced venue and within one (1) year after the date such claim(s) arose, or such claim(s) shall be deemed forever waived by Customer. Customer further agrees that in the event a third party brings any claim(s) against the Drilling Tools Group as a result of any acts or omissions of Customer, then Customer shall indemnify the Drilling Tools Group for all costs, expenses, and damages that any of the Drilling Tools Group may incur in connection with such claim(s), including without limitation attorney fees incurred in defense of such claim(s), and any damages awarded against any of the Drilling Tools Group in favor of the third party.

6. As security for any indebtedness of Customer incurred at any time to Drilling Tools, the Customer hereby conveys, transfers and pledges to Drilling Tools a security interest in the following personal property now belonging to or hereinafter acquired by Customer (the "Security Interest"): (1) all goods, equipment, materials and supplies purchased by Customer from the credit granted by Drilling Tools pursuant to this Credit Application; (2) all inventory; (3) all accounts receivable; (4) all cash and cash equivalents; (5) all deposit accounts; (6) all equipment; (7) all goods including fixtures; (8) all chattel paper, documents and instruments; (9) all letter-of-credit rights; (10) all investment property; (11) all general intangibles (including contract rights, royalty rights, causes in action, payment intangibles and software); (12) all books, records, minutes, contracts, licenses, insurance policies, business plans, files, computer files, and other media, accounting books and records, financial statements, filings and any other records and instruments, and all proceeds of any of the foregoing, including condemnation proceeds, proceeds of insurance, or proceeds of sale. If perfection of the Security Interest is deemed necessary by Drilling Tools in its sole and exclusive discretion, the Customer appoints Drilling Tools or its designee as Customer's attorney-in-fact to sign and file UCC-1 financing statements to perfect the Security Interest.

7. The use of the Customer's purchase order or purchase order numbers, if any, is for the Customer's convenience and identification only. The Customer's terms and conditions associated with any such purchase order shall not apply unless specifically agreed otherwise by Drilling Tools in further writing. Absence of a purchase order or purchase order number shall not constitute grounds for nonpayment. These Credit Terms shall apply in the event of conflict between these Credit Terms and Drilling Tools' General Terms And Conditions, these Credit Terms shall prevail.

8. These Credit Terms and any indebtedness of Customer to Drilling Tools shall be binding on Customer's successors, heirs and assigns. If Customer's indebtedness is secured by one or more personal guaranties, such personal guaranties shall survive any change of ownership or succession of Customer.

9. Customer hereby indemnifies and releases the Drilling Tools Group from any and all claims and liability, howsoever caused, that may arise at any time in connection with the approval, rejection, authorization, renewal or extension of credit pursuant to this Credit Application.

10. Customer shall inspect all deliveries from Drilling Tools immediately upon delivery to verify: (a) the delivery conforms in kind and quantity to the accompanying delivery ticket, and (b) there are no visible defects. Customer shall also examine all delivery tickets and invoices upon receipt. Deliveries, tickets and invoices shall be presumed correct and in conformance and Customer shall be deemed to have waived any claim or objection Customer may have in respect thereof unless, within three (3) business days of delivery, Customer notifies Drilling Tools of any variance, deficiency or defect.

11. Drilling Tools' election not to strictly enforce any provision of these Credit Terms shall not be construed as a waiver thereof and shall not excuse the Customer from strict performance. Time is of the essence. These Credit Terms are the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof, and supersede any prior oral or written agreement with respect to such subject matter. These Credit Terms may not be modified except in writing.
